About

I'm an iOS Developer with 3+ years experience. Before iOS Development, I've done Performance & Automation Testing.

I started mobile development 4 years ago with the launch of GoT Map Recap. The app averages a 4.8 rating and has been installed 300,000+ times.

I published Locally, a SwiftUI app to manage & navigate to your favourite locations. And Timely, for a better Hacker News reading experience.

I absolutely love building apps!

Skills

SWIFT

Full time iOS Developer at Shape A/S in Copenhagen, Denmark. Prior to this position, I've done iOS dev, part-time, for 3+ years. I've completed RayWenderlich's iOS Path, TeamTreeHouse's iOS Tech Degree, HackingWithSwift's #100DaysOfSwift & SwiftUI challenges, Apple's curriculum App Development with Swift & numerous other tutorials & books from BuildThatApp, NSHipster & objc.io. 80+ apps altogether covering UIKit, WebKit, MapKit, CoreImage, SpriteKit, CoreML, SwiftUI & Combine.

PERFORMANCE TESTING

My career has been focused on Performance Testing ever since I first starting working at BCR in May 2011. I've interacted with a large number of teams and technology stacks. I've learned test automation and performance testing and then I've taught others.

DATABASES

I've completed an Oracle Database Design & Programming course in high-school and I have been working with databases ever since. Both at the office and on my side projects.

WEB DEVELOPMENT

Before taking an interest in mobile development, my hobby projects and learning revolved around full stack web development, using mostly PHP and Python.
